Flight rules

- Refunds and changes related to your trip are evaluated based on the status of your ticket and the flights you wish to change or cancel.
- Full refund before departure: If none of the flights in the reservation have been used, the most restrictive refund rule in the reservation applies.
- Partial refund before departure: If only certain flights in the reservation are to be refunded and none of those flights have been used, the most restrictive refund rule among those flights applies.
- Refund after departure: If one or more flights in the reservation have already been used, the most restrictive refund rule in the reservation applies. The fare of the flown segment is deducted from the refundable amount.
- Change before or after departure: If any flights in the reservation are changed, the most restrictive change rule among those flights applies, regardless of whether the request is made before or after departure.
- If you do not board any flight, no-show rules apply to refund and change requests.
- Flights in your reservation must be used in the order they appear.
- If the ticket price is non-refundable, the fuel surcharge is also non-refundable. Refundable taxes can be requested through the manage booking page.
- If you miss and do not use any flight, and choose not to take the remaining flights, you can view and process your refund and change rights via the manage booking page.
- Any currency conversion differences that may occur during the payment process are independent of fare rules and are non-refundable.

- If your flight is disrupted due to operational reasons, you are entitled to a refund or change for your ticket and any additional services purchased (seat, baggage, pet transport, etc.).
- All local taxes are included in the total price shown for additional services.

Fare rules

- The total cost of your ticket will be charged via the payment method you've chosen at checkout.
- Pursuant to the General Communiqué of the Tax Procedure Law No. 462, fiscal e-tickets which are electronically signed and may be used as substantiating documents shall be accessible via <http://ebiletatura.turkishairlines.com> within a period not exceeding seventy-two (72) hours as of the date of issuance of the ticket. The fiscal e-ticket may be updated through the said website by using the option titled "Update Taxpayer Information" until the tenth (10th) day of the month following the month in which the ticket was purchased. Following the expiry of this period, no amendment, correction, or update shall be permitted with respect to the information contained in the fiscal e-ticket, and the fiscal e-ticket shall thereafter be available solely for viewing.
- If you purchased travel insurance with your ticket, your policy will be sent to the e-mail address you provided within 24 hours.
- At checkout, passengers who receive a warning indicating that they will have to present a credit card, and then accept this warning, must present the card owner's credit card and valid ID (passport, birth certificate, driver's license or marriage certificate) before their flight (presentations to be made at Turkish Airlines Sales Offices or at the check-in counter). Furthermore, your credit card must be submitted for any changes or cancellations/refunds to your ticket. Self check-in is not allowed for processes in which presentation of credit card is required. If the credit card you use for payment is a virtual card, please bring with you the credit card to which the virtual card is attached.
- Documents required for flight (passport, visas, identity documents, etc.) are required to be kept with you at all times.
- It is the passenger's responsibility to provide the required visas and other documents for the country to which they are traveling. Turkish Airlines takes no responsibility for the checking of these documents or for reminding passengers of them. Find out more: <https://www.turkishairlines.com/en-int/any-questions>
- Online check-in opens 24 hours before your flight.
- For international flights, you are required to be at the airport at least three (3) hours before the flight's scheduled departure time. For international flights, all check-in and baggage handling procedures must be completed at least 75 minutes before the flight's scheduled departure time.
- For domestic flights, you are required to be at the airport at least three (3) hours before the flight's scheduled departure time. For domestic flights, all check-in and baggage handling procedures must be completed at least 60 minutes before the flight's scheduled departure time.
- Because Turkish Airlines is based in Türkiye, additional processing fees may be charged by your bank for any online ticket purchases made with a credit card not connected with a Turkish bank. Please contact your bank for further information.
- Before boarding, you must have collected your boarding pass and completed all baggage procedures.
- If your baggage is in excess of your allocated limit, please take into account the time it will take to pay extra baggage fees when planning your journey to the airport.
- Passengers who have not applied to the gate before boarding, even those who've printed boarding pass over the internet, will not be accepted on board.
- Due to operational procedures involved, any special requests (wheelchair assistance, special meal requests, etc.) must be made at least 24 hours prior to the flight. Find out more: <https://www.turkishairlines.com/en-int/any-questions/special-assistance-for-passengers>
- In some of our connecting flights passengers may have to connect using a different airport in the same city. For example, some London-Tehran flights connecting in Istanbul may require first landing at Istanbul Sabiha Gökçen Airport, then a transfer to Istanbul Airport before boarding the connecting flight. Passengers will confirm they have understood should this be the case, and will then be responsible for transferring themselves and their baggage to the airport from which the connecting flight is to depart.
- Please click for necessary information regarding connecting flights departing from Sabiha Gökçen (SAW)/Istanbul (IST) airports: <https://www.turkishairlines.com/en-int/any-questions/transfer-transit-passengers/index.html>
